Letter from the Baronage

Greetings,

We had a fairly good turnout for the Tournament of the Windmill, and much fun was had by all. We had a competition to decide our Baronial Heavy Weapons Champion and Lord Fridrich Flußmüllner emerged victorious. We know he will serve the Barony well, just as his predecessor Lord Marcus Claudius Cincinnatus did.

We will be heading down to St. Swithin's Bog to support our Fencing Champion as he attempts to recapture the fencing pearl there.

Pennsic is next, and we look forward to seeing most of you there. Travel safe and stay hydrated.

In Service to the Dream,
Edward and Anastasie

Letter from the Chronicler

Greetings Delftwood!

The Sylvan Quill Award winners were announced in the July A&S. Delftwood's Full Tilt has been recognized for both Best Layout and Design, and for Best Special Edition! Thank you to everyone who has contributed articles, photos and artwork!

Speaking of the Special Editions - the next A&S Issue of the Full Tilt, will be published in September. There is still plenty of room for more submissions! I know there's been a lot of beautifying of Delftwood and period cooking happening lately - why not submit an article about it, or a simple step-by-step "how-to"?

Don't forget to enter the Dragon Dreams contest (details on cover).

Reminder: there will be no Full Tilt in August.

Thank you to everyone who has sent in articles and photos. Keep them coming!

In Service,
Desiderata Drake

Demo: ARISE & Ride at the Farm

Date:
July 28, 2012

Time:
11 AM - 4 PM

Location:
ARISE at the Farm
1972 New Boston Road
Chittenango, NY 13037

Setup can be July 27, 2012
after 5 PM

For people not going to land grab weekend at Pennsic, we have a fantastic demo planned as part of the ARISE & Ride at the Farm event on July 28, 2012.

We will be part of the entertainment during the day.

We are looking for heavy fighters and fencers, and also people to demonstrate a gentle-arts. Day shades would be an awesome addition.

We're looking to have about 200 people stop by the Farm, so this is a great way to get our name out in the community.

Please contact Lady Helene at alZarqa@gmail.com if you can participate.

Tournament of the Windmill

Court Report

Being the Report of the Court of Their Excellencies, Edward Harbinger and Anastasie de Lamoure, Ninth Baron and Baroness of Delftwood, held at The Tournament of the Windmill in Their Barony of Delftwood on the 30th day of June A.S. 47. Mistress Aheydis von Körckhingen reporting herald.

Their Excellencies requested the presence of any gentles for whom this day was their first event. Their Excellencies welcomed new-found friends and invited them to return to Delftwood soon.

Their Excellencies welcomed into Their court Lady Elinor Assheycombe of the Barony of Starkhafn in the Kingdom of Caid who presents gifts to both Their Royal highnesses and to Their Excellencies.

Their Excellencies called upon Their Heavy Weapons Champion, Lord Marcus Claudius Cinnatus. As his term of office was now at an end, Lord Marcus was released from service and divested of the baronial sword and baldric. Their Excellencies thanked Lord Marcus for his protection and service and bid him swift return to the lists.

Their Excellencies called upon the Marshal of the Tournament, Lord Fridrich Flußmüllner, and bid him give word of the events of the day. Lord Fridrich announced the victors as Baldo and company and thanked all participants for the making the day a great success.

Lord Fridrich Flußmüllner was retained by Their Excellencies, whereupon They spoke of his victory at battle earlier in the day. In honor of his prowess and comportment on the field, Their invested Lord Fridrich as the new Heavy Weapons Baronial Champion and bid him take his place upon the dais.

Their Excellencies called before them the Event Steward, Meisterin Felicitas Flußmüllnerin and bid her give report to the populace. Meisterin Felicitas thanked all those who had labored to the make the event possible, and mentioned especially the efforts of Lady Fáilenn ingen Chernaich and Amalie Reinhardt, Ministresses of the Lists, Master Cyneric Dracaheorte, Porter, and Feast Steward Baroness Olivia d'Anjou and her kitchen staff.

Their Excellencies called before them the Feast Steward, Baroness Olivia d'Anjou, and thanked her and her staff for a sumptuous and generous day board. Baroness Olivia announced that more food would be forthcoming and implored the populace to eat their fill.

Baroness Olivia d'Anjou was retained by Their Excellencies and bid stay a moment, whereupon They remarked that among the many honors bestowed upon this honorable lady, one was sadly absent. In honor of her many years of service to the Barony of Delftwood, it did please Their Excellencies to make Baroness Olivia a Companion of the Order of the Windmill. Scroll (with many bees!) by Lady Helene al-Zarqa'.

Drottinn Ráðúlfr Eiríksson was inducted, in absentia, into the Order of the Windmill for his many labors in service to the barony, and for the example of service he sets for House Hamilton. Scroll by Herr Fridrich Flußmüllner.

A Shoot In The Wildewoods

August 31st – September 3rd

Wildwood Sports Center

5740 Fikes Rd, Memphis, NY 13112

Day Trip (1 day): Weekend (including camping):

Age 15 and up: $10      Age 15 and up: $15

Youth aged 6-14: $5      Youth aged 6-14: $7

Youth 5 and under free. There is a $5.00 non-member surcharge.

Site opens at 5PM Friday and everyone must be off site by 12noon Monday.

There will be shooting and throwing Friday, Saturday and Sunday. There will be archery, thrown weapons, archery, a night shoot, archery and a night throw.... did we mention there will also be archery?

Test your skills by trying to hit the enemy from a castle arrowslit, at night, by firelight. There will be more archery with the possibility of a walking range, royal rounds, and of course there is the chance to become Delftwood's next Archery Champion. Come support your Barony's champion during the Seven Pearls Archery shoot. Last but not least, help Delftwood defend against the invasion of Monsters. The youth of the Kingdom need to capture and rehabilitate the monsters.

Like throwing things? There will be a night throw, royal rounds and a chance to throw to become Delftwood's Baronial champion.

Lunch, as in the past, is a pay lunch provided by the site. In past years, they have offered chicken/beef on a stick, salt potatoes, corn on the cob, venison stew, and much more.

In lieu of feast, Delftwood will host a Stone Soup kitchen for any who stop by. There will be soup available as soon as the first batch is finished each day, and many varieties will be cooked up long into the night. This is food shared by a common fire, contributed to by many, and available for anyone. No one will be turned away. Please bring meat, veggies, spices, bread, cheese etc. to contribute. Monetary contributions are also accepted. We welcome help cooking, prepping, and in general, sitting around the fire and sharing in our community. Any dietary concerns can be directed to Baroness Anastasie at lovetoo76@verizon.net.

There is ample room for camping, and a shower is now available on site.

The site is wet, but we request that you purchase any domestic beer and wine products from the site owners if available.

Merchants are welcome, at no additional fee. Merchants are responsible for providing their own tables, chairs, and pavilions. Please contact Dragos Pelikanos (cjburke@hauntedparsonage.us) to reserve your spot or if you have any questions.

Delftwood Yule

Saturday December 1st, 2012

The theme of the day will be an Alsatian Yule. This area changed allegiances several times during the middle ages, making the culture a wonderful mix of German, Swiss, Dutch and... OK, French traditions. The Yuletide traditions also reflect this rich diversity, including the first documented use of an indoor Christmas tree!

The event will take place at Sts. Peter and Paul BINGO Hall, located at: 412 North Lowell Ave, Syracuse, NY 13204. The site will be open from 10am – 8pm and is handicapped accessible. The fees for the day, which include entrance and feast, are: $15 per adult, $8 for children 5-14, children under 5 are free, and the non-member surcharge of $5 applies. Questions should be addressed to the Event Steward: Meisterin Felicity Flußmüllnerin, mka Ciarrai Eaton, via email at: felicity@faerhaga.org or phone: (315) 214-3405 from 12 - 9pm.

Reservations should be sent to:

SCA Inc, Barony of Delftwood
PO Box 6694

Syracuse, NY 13217

Please make checks payable to
"SCA NY – Barony of Delftwood"

An All Day Alsatian Feast will be included for the entrance fee. There will be a traditional Boar's Head Procession and the food will be a tasty mix of Lowland, German, Swiss, and French cuisines brought to you by Lady Lijsbet de Keukere, mka Keirin Ralff, (lijsbet.vandelfthout@gmail.com).

There will be a dance class offered on the dances of Alsace, including Allemandes, Pavaues, and Basse Danses. There will also be a chance to try the dances learned later in the day. We are pleased to be hosting the Baronial Bardic Championship competition, the Baronial A&S Championship competition, and Baronial Court.

Directions:

From the North or South: Take your best route to 690 and follow the East or West directions.

From the West: Take 690E to Exit 8 Hiawatha Blvd. Take a right at the end of the ramp onto Hiawatha Blvd. Take a left onto State Fair Blvd at the fork in the road. At the end of State Fair Blvd. there is a light, turn right onto Genesee Street. Continue 1/2 mile on W. Genesee, then turn left onto Lowell Ave (there is a Byrne Dairy immediately before the turn). Hall is the second building on the left.

July Business Meeting Minutes

Respectfully submitted by Amalie Reinhardt

Meeting is opened at 6:59 pm by His Excellency Yngvar.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Delftwood's Full Tilt has been recognized for both Best Layout and Design and for Best Special Edition! Congratulations to Desi for earning two Sylvan Quills!

OFFICER REPORTS

Baron & Baroness: Baron Edward said that the Tournament of the Windmill was a fun event and that Lord Fridrick is our new heavy weapons champ. He also thanks all for helping getting their stuff home due to transportation issues.

New Coronet Update: Baroness Anastasie has talked with John/Ian and has a sketch of the new coronets. They will come with carrying boxes. The coronets will be multi-paneled and will have some scrollwork and some heraldry on the panels.

Pursuivant: Heraldry rocks as ever. More submissions are in process. You can also go to Herald's Point at Pennsic for submissions. After Pennsic, come see Alheydis for submissions/consultations.

Chronicler: The Full Tilt will be out next week. There will be no Full Tilt in August, but there will be 2 issues in September-one being the A&S special edition. Please send articles and artwork to Desi. (Else, we might have a stick figure issue courtesy of Fergus.) The deadline for the A&S issue is 1.5 weeks after Pennsic. The Chronicler position ends in September and Desi would like to stay on. If anyone else is interested in the Chronicler position, please let Desi know.

Web Minister The A&S schedule and the Wildwoode event notice are updated and online. Release forms are still needed from sca.org to use profile photos. Question: Do we know who has submitted the blanket permission forms to the Kingdom? Answer: Not at this time. Andy is still planning to step down at the end of his term.

Arts & Sciences* The Delftwood

Beautification Team (DBT) is off and running. members of the team have created standard pole stands and water cooler covers. The next DBT meeting is on July 12 after the pavilions class.

July 12 - period pavilions by Caryl

July 19- banner painting/Cook's Guild meeting by Clarice & Aiden

July 25 - basic T-tunic prep/ Pennsic prep by Desi & Ljlsbet

August 2 - No business mtg (due to Pennsic) so garb making/ fix-it night

Ljlsbet says that she needs class offerings starting in October. Please let her know if you are interested in teaching a class. Kim/Katerina is A&S Deputy. Also, A&S donations were a bit short this past month to cover renting the bingo hall.

Knight Marshal * Corbin sent in a report. Fighting has happened and there have been "no owies". We got back surveys and will go through the information soon. Rian has some shields and helmets in his garage. Questions needed to be answered: How many new fighters can we get into the loaner? What are we in the greatest need of?

Fencing Marshal Practice is still happening at Onondaga Lake Park. Please be sure to bring water if you are coming to practice (whether as a fighter or spectator). there are 2 new fencers and there have been no injuries After Pennsic (most likely), there will an inventory survey of loaner gear.

Thrown Weapons Thrown weapons will not be happening this coming weekend. Else, announcements will be made the night before on the list.

Minister of Lists* Failenn said there was an event this past weekend. Amalie has been authorized as an MOL. Anyone else who is interested, come out on Wednesdays to fight practice to learn how to MOL.

Archery Archery is happening . There are 2 new teens coming out. There is loaner gear available.

Chancellor Minor Not present - no report sent.

Chatelaine There are new people stopping by and learning more about us at fight practice. Most of the brochures have been given out. Desi has received enough photos to replace the stock photos with Delftwoodians. (Desi has the price quote at home for the cost of printing new brochures.) The Delftwood swag order is in process/has been ordered. The items should be in within 2 weeks. The Chatelaine office is up in October and Desi would like to stay in the position. Desi also asks to please bring sewing machines to help during this month's newcomers class on T-tunic making. Desi will bring scrap fabric.

Historian "In box. Keeping box. Keeping box cool in air conditioning."

Chamberlain "We have a whole bunch of stuff." The kitchen items have come back from the event. As previously mentioned, Jenet would like to step down in September if possible. Please ask if you'd like info on this position. FYI: Marcus & Desi have one set of list poles. Felicity has flags and ropes.

Exchequer* - Not in attendance, but Yngvar has his report. In June we closed the old SCA account and we now have an SCA-NY account. The current account balance, after all the income and expenses were read is $3977.00. Delftwood lost money on the Tournament of the Windmill.

Seneschal Yngvar has nothing to report.

EVENTS

Desi gives a follow-up for the Liverpool Library Demo: They loved us and would possibly like us back. They would also like to give us money. We've got a few new people out of this, too.

Felicity and Fridrich give a follow-up for the Tournament of the Windmill: (wait....) Fred talked. (*GASP!*) The site is lovely and they Would like us to come back for more events. We could do an autumn event as they have dorms. If we are willing to do volunteer work, we could have a low site cost fee in future. (As in sweat equity.)

Maybe we could do a weekend event next time. On the fighting side, there was a more historical format for tournament. Fridrich received feedback and many liked it.

Baroness Anastasie and Dragos speak about A Shoot in the Wildwoods (8/31 – 9/3): Baroness Anastasie needs to connect with Felicity to discuss the evening shoot. She will also talk to Port-o-Potty people to confirm the reservations (potties and shower). Dragos says he has heard from 2 vendors so far for the event.

Felicity speaks about Yule (12/1) at Sts Peter & Paul Bingo Hall: Felicity says there is a change in logistics as there will be reservations for the feast with a cap of 80 people. There will be a dayboard with feast token and a different token for the 'I didn't pay feast' attendees.

Twelfth Night will not be happening in Coppertree/Delftwood as a bid in WV was submitted to Kingdom.

Jennet is putting together a bid for the Baronial Investiture (Seven Deadly Sins, DECTFF) for St Sophia's. The Æstel deadline is 1/1/13 for the 2/13 newsletter. (12/1/12 is better for the 1/13 newsletter). Merchanting can happen at this event.

OTHER BUSINESS:

Helena reminds everyone that there is a demo on July 28 from 11-3 at ARISE at the Farm. She needs someone to volunteer to run the SCA demo piece. We can get in to set-up as early as Friday evening or at 7AM on Saturday. (For Desi) 200 brochures are needed for this event. (No one has issue with printing more brochures, but no amount of money was discussed for printing them.)

It is suggested that the website should be updated to add directions for fight practice (no commercial vehicles allowed on the Parkway and need to use the back entrance near the Salt Museum) and A&S (for the current construction on State Fair Blvd.)

Meeting closed by Yngvar at 8:35 PM only to be re-opened at 8:36 PM.

Michael says we need loaner arrows for Wildwood. Baron Edward ballpark a figure of $100 for 5 dozen school-grade arrows and is unsure of the cost for bows. The populace is ok with paying $200 for 2 youth bows & arrows.

Another reminder for all -- There is no meeting next month due to Pennsic. The next Officer's Meeting will be in September.

Meeting Re-closed by Yngvar at 8:38 PM.

Sylvan Quill Awards

From the July Æstel

It is my honor, as it has been for the past two years, to once again present the winners of the Sylvan Quill prize for excellence in local newsletters. The winners below are also being submitted for the Society-wide William Blackfox awards. Our local chroniclers work very hard - congratulate one today! ~ Tiercelin, Kingdom Chronicler

Best Overall Newsletter: this does not necessarily mean the best-looking newsletter, but rather the newsletter which best meets the needs of the local group or guild for which it is published. It should accurately reflect the status of the group and be a valuable tool for growth and promotion of the SCA goals and ideals. This title is awarded to the newsletter and the Chronicler.

Winner: Windfalls. Shire of Coppertree. Lady Aerin Wren.

Best Layout and Design: for the best looking newsletter in balance and style. Awarded to the newsletter and the Chronicler.

Winner: Full Tilt. Barony of Delftwood. Lady Desiderata Drake.

Best Special Edition: for Arts & Sciences issues, or other limited-focus issues of a geographic group (Canton, Shire, Barony, etc.). Awarded to the newsletter and the Chronicler.

Winner: Full Tilt. A&S Issue. Lady Desiderata Drake.

Best Regular Feature: for those cartoons, articles, columns, etc. which appear regularly in the particular newsletter. Awarded to the creator or feature writer and the newsletter.

Winner: The Apple Press. Shire of Sylvan Glen. THL Hrefna Ulfvarinnsdottir. Happenings in the Shire.

Best Poetry or Short Fiction: recognizes the author of an outstanding poem or piece of short fiction. Awarded to the writer and the newsletter.

Winner: Fewmet, Chronicler Lord Padraid au' Chaeliechair. War Storm by Master Fridrikr Tomasson av Knuslig Hamm

Honorable Mention:

The Althing. Barony Marche of the Debatable Lands. Lady Elss of Augsburg. Elss is one of the most quietly consistent chroniclers we have in our Kingdom. She submits her work to me with great regularity, and produces an informative newsletter.

Lady Helene's Garden

By Lady Helene al-Zarqa'

July 2012: How Does Your Garden Grow?

"Beside peas and beans, the most popular vegetables were those that tasted the strongest: leeks, onions, and garlic." (McLean, p. 27)

With a new structure and fresh soil, the garden was ready for planting. I had removed oregano, sage, lemon balm, and rue from the herb garden, and put them back in the ground. Unfortunately, the only plant that survived its time out of the ground was the oregano. Fortunately, this left an open canvas for planting.

While I was waiting to see what survived, I purchased and planted parsley, basil, and thyme. The parsley quickly died, or so I thought, but it sprouted new growth. I also added mint, in a pot because mint is very invasive, and planted seeds for leeks, chives, sage, beans, and peas. I also planted marigolds because I was curious when I saw McLean listed it as a useful food flower (p. 142).

It is shaping up to be a nice little kitchen garden, though little is the correct adjective in relation to Medieval gardens. The garden measures approximate 10 ft. x 10 ft. which is miniscule compared to the average size of Medieval gardens.

"Depending on the town site, tenement plots were sometimes much smaller, as at Salisbury, where the average size was 115 ft. by 50 ft., let for 1s. annual rent, and sometimes much bigger, as at Thame, where 1s. plots were one acre big, some of them with frontages 60 ft. wide and gardens 650 ft. to 700 ft. long." (p. 84)

As the garden gets up and growing, I am running into some problems. First, there is some sort of creature eating my newly-germinated peas and bean plants. This means time for more research into pest control since my 1 pest-control devices (cats) do not go outside without direct supervision. Second, the recent heat waves have not been good for my leeks and my chives. Good thing Don Fergus and I do not have to live off of what the garden produces!

See you next month!
Helene

Greetings Unto the throwers of Delftwood,

As I mentioned at Aprils business meeting I am looking for new thrown weapons marshals. Here is a list of days that thrown weapons will be held.

July 8th, 15th and 29th

If you are just looking to throw and not become a marshal you are more than welcome to come out. And as always please keep an eye on the list for any cancellations.

In Service, Anastasie
