Letter from the Baronage

reetings,

This has been a busy month indeed! Firstly I would like to thank Don Fergus and Lady Helene for acting as our emissaries at Barony Wars. We are very proud of how well our Barony did and would like to thank all who participated. Vivat!!

We were at Summer's End supporting our new Thrown Weapons Champion Ralf Eirikson. Ralf, although he did not emerge victorious, did our Barony proud and represented us well.

We went to the Coronation of Khalek and Bronwyn as our new king and queen and swore fealty to the crown. The event was quite fun and the pageantry was wonderful.

We attended Harvest Raid and had an absolutely wonderful time. The site is beautiful and the people are awesome. The Rose Tourney was a blast and we can't wait till Yule for the next one.

We have been in contact with the jeweler for the new coronets and have been given a full scale drawing and a contract for them. We have passed that on to our Seneschal, Earl Yngvar.

We hope everyone has fun at the events that are coming up, and remember, stay safe.

Yours In Service,
Edward and Anastasie

Letter from the Chronicler

Cover Me (or, The Vellum's Plea)

(To the tune of B. Springsteen's Cover Me;
Inspired by Mistress Ekaterina Volkova
and Master Fridrikr Tomasson av Knusslig
Hamn Words by Megge Gormshuileach)

Soft and smooth, yet tougher than paper;
If you make a mistake you can just use a scraper.

Cover me, come on now cover me.
Pigments or water color, won't you come on
and cover me?

Promissory, award, grant or peerage
bestowing,

Lay it down in silverpoint, set the ink to flowing.

Cover me, zoomorphs or vine-work, cover
me!

Well I'm waiting for the scribe who will take the dive and cover me.

Majiscule above, escutcheon below --
Be sure to leave space where the signatures go.

Illuminate, limn with gold,
Then calligraph me 'til there's room no more!

The whole world is waiting out there just hoping for
A glimpse of the glory that you've laid in store.

Cover me, Blackletter or Uncial, cover me.
Though I'll be given to another won't you set in and cover me?

Give to another, won't you set in and cover
me?

October Business Meeting Minutes

Respectfully submitted by Amalie Reinhardt

Meeting opened by Sir Yngvar at 7:02 PM.

It is stated that many of our officers are not present tonight.

OFFICER REPORTS

Baron & Baroness: Their Excellencies Edward and Anastasie thank Fergus & Helene for acting as their emissaries at Barony Wars. They also would like to thank everyone who participated and are proud of how well Delftwood did at the event.

Their Excellencies also attended Summer's End and thanked Ralf for representing our Barony in the thrown weapons tournament. Additionally, they attended the Coronation of Khalek and Bronwyn and Harvest Raid.

Pursuivant: Alheydis says that heraldry progresses. She has paperwork for 4 people. Auld's name and arms passed and Ichabod Lobster also passed.

Chronicler: Desi asks for people to send her stuff for the Full Tilt.

Web Minister (skipped for now as Amalie is not present... yet.)

Arts & Sciences: Ljlsbet announces that the AE Academy is November 10 and asks if anyone is interested in teaching a class.

The following A&S are classes coming up:
10/11 - Illumination for beginners (Helene)
10/18 - Oil lamps (Bedwyr, from Myrkfaelinn)

10/25 - Newcomers/Dancing

At the present time, there is only one open class remaining this year (Dec 20).

Knight Marshal: Marcus states that fight practice is back inside the school and that attendance has been 4-8 people. We have some new fighters as well. Crown is this weekend and there will be good fights to watch. Marcus will also submit a list of "no practice" dates for everyone to see.

Fencing Marshal: Helene sent in a report. First, she would like everyone to know that she would like to step down from this office when her term ends in February. Anyone who is interested in becoming Fencing Marshal should send a letter to The Baron and Baroness (Their Excellencies Edward and Anastasie), The Seneschal (Earl Yngvar), and the current officer (Lady Helene). You must be a warranted Aethelmarc Rapier Marshal.

Fencing Practice is happening at All Saints

Elementary on Wednesdays from 6:30 to 9:00 PM, and there will no practice on November 28 due to a school event being held at the site. Also, Helene wishes to thank all who help clear the site so we can practice and for those putting all the stuff back at the end of the evening.

There are several new fencers and they are working on holding training classes at the beginning of practice. If you have an idea for a tournament to test-run or a fencing-related class you would like to see at practice, please contact Helene.

Lastly, there will be an inventory of the loaner gear at A&S on October 18.

Thrown Weapons: Anastasie will try to keep thrown weapons open as long as possible. She reminds everyone to wear warm clothes to practice as it is getting cold.

Minister of Lists: Failenn sent in a report. She is hoping to step down from this position at the February meeting. If anyone is interested in the position, please send a letter of intent to their Excellencies, their Incipencies, Failenn, and Yngvar. If anyone is interested, but not warranted, please contact Failenn as there is still time to become warranted.

Archery: Michael states that archery is happening outside for as long as we can. There is 1 new archer. There is loaner gear available if you wish to come out and shoot.

Chancellor Minor: Sultana is not here and did not send in a report. Her Excellency says, "Kids are happening."

Chatelaine: Desi says that people continue showing up for things. Pan Henryk presented a class last week on researching your persona. The newcomers class this month is open. Please bring projects to work on. Desi is looking for people to teach classes in November and December. She also has brochures for people who would like some.

Historian: Oeric is not here and did not send in a report. Ljlsbet says that we assume history is still in his box on his porch.

Chamberlain: Finn says, "Stuff has happened in a new place." The new storage shed is on Route 11 behind Pizza Hut and both he and Yngvar have keys. He thanks everyone for the help with moving the stuff, Cyneric for providing the shelves, and Jennet for all her work.

The next planned usage for stuff is for Yule.

Exchequer: Cyneric sent in a report. After all monies collected and spent were stated, the Barony has $3094.59 in the account.

Seneschal: Yngvar says that he will determine if he will finish a term of his own by next month.

Webminister: Amalie will be working on a new website design, hopefully starting at end of November. She thanks Clarice for her help with the transition and states that the Full Tilt A&S issue is up on site.

EVENTS

Yule – December 1 at Saints Peter & Paul Bingo Hall: Felcity opens with Their Majesties are coming to Yule. We will be holding, upon request, a Royal Rose Deed. All information on Yule has been updated on the websites (Delftwood & Kingdom) and the next AEstel will have the new information, too. Fees: There will be an all day feast, but pre-registered is needed for that feast and it will be $5 per person with a cap of 100 people. If someone is not pre-registered, they will receive bread and beverage only. Felicity notes that merchant space will be available, open flames are welcomed, and the site is discretely damp. It is also stated that Kingdom youth championships are on the schedule, as are the Baronial A&S and Bardic Championship competitions.

Seven Deadly Sins – February 2 at St Sophia's: Yngvar received a text message from Jennet stating she will not be here tonight. Therefore, we will anxiously wait to hear the report next month!

OTHER BUSINESS

Yngvar has a letter (with a very detailed description) for the new coronets with a design enclosed. He will get a check from Cyneric to pay for them as it has already been voted upon. Laurel leaves will be added to it as well.

Given there is no other business...

Meeting closed by Sir Yngvar at 7:23 PM

Lady Helene's Garden

By Lady Helene al-Zarqa'

October 2012: The Not-So-Grim Reaper

"Nearly all medieval cookery books began with beans, and nearly all beans went into pottages; they were vegetables of substance, not personality." (McLean, p. 202)

Good news everyone!

Since the frosts have held off and the rain has persisted over the past month, my beans have flowered and developed into green beans. When I planted the seeds, I had expected this joy in July or August, but I'll take it now.

In additional good but rather interesting news, I had chives finally germinate. This is interesting because they did not germinate in the location where I had planted seeds, nor did they develop in the early spring, which is when I had been accustomed to seeing chives return.

Furthermore, the rue plant that I had written off as dead sprouted new leaves and is growing near the newly-germinated chives. A Medieval Herbal, crediting the 11th century Herbarium of Apuleius, features seven medicinal uses for rue, including cures for bloatedness, sore eyes, lethargy, headache, and nose bleeds. (p. 55) If you recall, rue was one of the plants that I had taken out of my previous garden and replanted back in May.

The next step will be to gather and dry some herbs, and perhaps to try a pottage recipe using the onions, beans, and herbs that have been growing all summer and into fall. It is still a good thing that Fergus and I do not have to survive on the output from this garden to last us the winter!

See you next month!

Helene
